

Interwar architecture

FORMER AGRICULTURE BANK
HOUSE

K. Donelaičio g. 73, Kaunas

Majority of historical buildings of between the wars in the cities and province of Lithuania are characterized by clearly expressed classical features . Rational and functional features in the bank architecture started appearing in the fourth decade. The building by Karolis Reisonas is peculiar for reserved architectural features, but bright colors prevail interior, main attention payed to hygiene and cleanness.

