

Interwar architecture

VYTAUTAS MAGNUS WAR MUSEUM

K Donelaičio g. 64, Kaunas

This building justifies maturity of Lithuanian modern culture, it is also the monument to one of the greatest lords of medieval Lithuania. The palace represents the identity of interwar architecture most vividly and expressively in harmony of interrelation between modernism and tradition. Memorial square with monuments to famous people or events of independence is close by. Arch. Vladimiras Dubeneckis, Karolis Reisonas, Kazimieras Kriščiukaitis.
