NEBEPRISIŠKIAKOPUSTELIAUJANTIESIEMS MEETS DAVID

Kęstučio g. 26

The longest Lithuanian word (meaning something like "particularly for those who never pick up enough shamrocks for themselves") can be found on the eeriest building in Kaunas - hotel-ghost Britanika which is still waiting for a decision on its future. In May 2018, a naughty David appeared on another ghost building nearby, and he's aiming at Britanika.
