

Wood based architecture

A. GEDMANTAS HOUSE

 Žemuogių g. 2, Kaunas

In 1927 A. Gedmantas was the captain of Lithuania's army, the adjutant of Riflemen's Union Staff. During this period he lived in Kaunas and this was his house. The first floor was set up as a shop and the second floor had 4 living rooms for officer's family. This floor is equipped with a closed gallery, house is decorated with the skylights of the sunlight and preserves many authentic elements.

